

Finance Minister AMA Muhith on Saturday said he would come up with a clear outline within a week on implementation of the multibillion-dollar Padma Bridge project with the government's own resources.

The Finance Minister said this while exchanging views with editors and senior journalists of different dailies, news agencies and TV channels at a pre-budget discussion meeting at his ministry.